

Excerpts from an Interview with Naomi Honigsbaum
Founder of Maxilla Nursery Centre

15/12/2015

19min 44sec

- 00.00 Naomi sets the scene of 1960's Notting Hill 1968 cited as the year the country began challenging the status quo
- 01.42 Head Start – project in USA
- 02.40 Naomi's idea of setting up a modest provision parents could input into
- 03.00 Pat McDonald, Naomi's partner in setting up Powis Playgroups
- 07.10 Illegal childminders
- 09.45 Setting up additional playgroup at the Metro club
- 10.00 Parents lobby Tory minister on play provision for children
- 11.00 Funding for a community worker (Judy Wilcox)
- 13.30 People's Association meeting, discussing land available for community use under the motorway – nursery (Maxilla)
- 15.40 The closure of under 3's at Maxilla in 2006